All Are Welcome

Because we believe each person represents an image of the Divine and welcome the light that each individual brings, we open our doors to everyone. We encourage full participation by all in the life of our meeting. We recognize one another as equal travelers on the journey, seeking always to celebrate our joys and share our struggles together. May we create and tend an ethic of respect, reverence, safety, and listening. May we delight in our differences!

Joys and Concerns

Closing Prayer

Announcements:

- Today, May 5 we will be having the third class of our book group, on Thich Nhat Hanh's Living Buddha Living Christ
- There is a prayer vigil each Wednesday at 6:30 here at the church – It's focus is a cease-fire of wars, particularly in Israel/Gaza
- “What an amazingly successful launch of Klamath Interfaith Food Pantry! Our first two pantries were April 23 and 30; we served 80 families, a total of 226 people--116 adults and 110 children. We had 34 volunteers who put in a total of 270 hours stocking food shelves, serving clients, and of course, setting up the pantry. What a fantastic group of kind and giving people have assembled to do this very important work! Our food pantry impacts the lives of many people. We are now collecting extra items that the Food Bank doesn't provide -- women's and men's toiletries, toilet tissue and feminine hygiene. You may take these items to your church, and we'll arrange for someone to bring them to the pantry on stocking day. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Linda Warner at 541-281-5535. Stay tuned for

April 2024

Donations for April $1240 Pledged $2618

Year to date $22,515 Pledged $10,472

We appreciate and need your ongoing financial support! The meeting asks every member and regular attendee to consider giving, according to one's ability, as a spiritual practice. It is not the size of the donation that matters, but the heart from which it is given. You may drop your tax-deductible gift in the box located at the back corner of our meeting room.

Financial giving is a concrete way in which we ALL can share in the ministry and outreach of Friends. Thank you to all who faithfully contribute! May we continue to trust God to enable us to give with generous and open hearts!

Please pledge for 2024. Forms are near the entry table.
