This Sunday is Meeting for Business after Worship

Our Christmas Offering this year will be taken on December 15 during worship. It will be used to buy bus tokens to be given to the OSU Street Health Nursing Project to help with rides to the emergency room or the doctor for those who are homeless.

November 3rd and 10th will be special Sundays dedicated to providing a peaceful & prayerful atmosphere. The church will be open after 10:30 AM on November 5 for prayer.

Pantry News

- The Food Bank is having extreme food shortages locally and statewide. The congregations need to donate money directly to the pantry for food or to the Food Bank and or be generous with canned goods and shelf stable Foods for our pantry. Please pick up cereals and canned food to donate on Sunday. Klamath Falls Interfaith Food Pantry also needs used egg cartons. For the time being hold off on collecting toiletries.
- December pantry nights have been moved to December 10th and 17th, 5:30 until 7:30. (Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve fall on regular pantry nights.)
- Volunteers are needed for Thanksgiving Meal Box distribution on Tuesday, November 19th from 3:30 until 6:30 or as long as you can stay and help.

Peace Testimony – a Peace Parable

There is an anecdote that says that William Penn, just after becoming a Quaker and hearing about the stance opposing war came to George Fox with the question of whether he could continue to wear a sword. George Fox's answer was: "Wear it (the sword) as long as thou canst." The next time Fox met Penn, he had no sword
