

Responsive Reading

Responsive reading of Isaiah 49:15, Luke 13:34, Psalm 131 (Read bold aloud)

As we remember mothers, let us remember God as our eternal source of new Light and new Love.

God said: "Can a mother forget the baby at her breast and have no compassion on the child she has borne?

Though she may forget,
I will not forget you!

Jesus said, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you,

how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were not willing."

We are God's children

And as God's children may we be able to say

"My heart is not proud, Lord,
my eyes are not haughty;

I do not concern myself with great matters or things too wonderful for me.

But I have calmed and quieted myself,

I am like a weaned child with its mother;
like a weaned child I am content."

Israel, put your hope in the Lord both now and forevermore.

All Are Welcome

Because we believe each person represents an image of the Divine and welcome the light that each individual brings, we open our doors to everyone. We encourage full participation by all in the life of our meeting. We recognize one another as equal travelers on the journey, seeking always to celebrate our joys and share our struggles together. May we create and tend an ethic of respect, reverence, safety, and listening. May we delight in our differences!

Thank you for hearing our cries in the night and responding.

Thank you for loving us

Even when we can't seem to stay out of trouble.

all around all the time.

For being our Inner Mother and offering guidance and healing.

Financial Information and Encouragement

We appreciate and need your ongoing financial support!

The meeting asks every member and regular attendee to consider giving, according to one's ability, as a spiritual practice. It is not the size of the donation that matters, but the heart from which it is given. You may drop your tax-deductible gift in the box located at the back corner of our meeting room.

Financial giving is a concrete way in which we ALL can share in the ministry and outreach of Friends. Thank you to all who faithfully contribute! May we continue to trust God to enable us to give with generous and open hearts! Please pledge for 2025. Forms are near the entry table.
