

All God's critters got a place in the choir
Some sing low, some sing higher,
Some sing out loud on the telephone wire
And some just clap their hands, or paws, or anything they got now
Dogs and the cats they take up the middle
Where the honey bee hums and the crickets fiddle
The donkey brays and the pony neighs
The old coyote howls

All God's critters got a place in the choir
Some sing low, some sing higher,
Some sing out loud on the telephone wire
And some just clap their hands, or paws, or anything they
got now
It's a simple song of living sung everywhere
By the ox and the fox and the grizzly bear
The grumpy alligator and the hawk above
The sly racoon and the turtle dove

All God's critters got a place in the choir
Some sing low, some sing higher,
Some sing out loud on the telephone wire
And some just clap their hands, or paws, or anything they

All Are Welcome

Because we believe each person represents an image of the Divine and welcome the light that each individual brings, we open our doors to everyone. We encourage full participation by all in the life of our meeting. We recognize one another as equal travelers on the journey, seeking always to celebrate our joys and share our struggles together. May we create and tend an ethic of respect, reverence, safety, and listening. May we delight in our differences!

Song : All God's Critters have a Place in the Choir

Closing Blessing
Jan L. Richarson, In the Sanctuary of Women, pg 138

In every season, in every hour, may the love of God find you, enfold you, and gather you in.

Breathe on Me Breath of God

Breathe on me breath of God
Fill me with Light anew
That I might love what thou dost love
And do what thou wouldst do

Breathe on me breath of God
Until my heart is pure Until with thee I will one will
To do and to endure

Breathe on me breath of God
Unite my soul with thine
Until the earthly part of me
Glows with thy fire divine.

All God's Critters Have a Place in the Choir

All God's critters got a place in the choir
Some sing low, some sing higher,
Some sing out loud on the telephone wire
And some just clap their hands, or paws, or anything they
got now
Listen to the bass, it's the one on the bottom
Where the bullfrog croaks
And the hippopotamus
Moans and groans with big t'do
And the old cow just goes 'moo'
